The Sunshine Coast Arts Council, a non-profit volunteer-based organization supports the arts in our coast-wide community and operates the Sunshine Coast Arts Centre in Sechelt. The facility includes a community gallery and a performance space, and art and music studios.

Assistance is received from volunteers who contribute their time and energy, working on all our programs. We also benefit from the assistance of the British Columbia Arts Council, the Canada Council for the Arts, the Sunshine Coast Regional District, the District of Sechelt, and we acknowledge the financial assistance of the Government of British Columbia. We are also supported by the generosity of our members and donors, along with those who attend and support our fundraising events and our programs.

SPRING 2012 READING SERIES

Canada Council for the Arts

Conseil des Arts
du Canada

Four readings by four writers make up the Spring 2012 series of literary events at the Arts Centre. The readings are free, thanks to the generous support of the Canada Council for the Arts and the SC Arts Council.

Vancouver poet, novelist, journalist and essayist, George Fetherling will launch the series Saturday, February 18—provided that he doesn't get a call for his knee replacement surgery around that time. Fetherling has written and/or edited more than 50 books, including two novels and at least a dozen books of poetry. A prolific travel writer, his work also includes memoirs, travel, criticism and history. Most recently, Fetherling published the novel Walt Whitman's Secret and The Sylvia Hotel Poems, both in 2010. Of the former, one reviewer wrote, "Resolutely unfashionable, utterly convincing, it is a resonant, shimmering work that stakes a claim on posterity."

Fetherling was awarded a D. Litt (honoris causa) by St. Mary's University, Halifax in 1997, Toronto's Harbourfront Festival Prize "for substantial contribution to Canadian literature" in 1995, and he was short-listed for the Trillium Award for Travels By Night (1994).

On March 23, Governor General's Award-winning poet, David Zieroth is slated to read. Zieroth, a resident of North Vancouver, has published 14 books of poetry, including The Fly in Autumn, winner of the 2009 Governor General's Award. His latest collection is Hay Day Chronicle (2010).

Novelist, Marina Endicott, will read April 20. Her latest book, The Little Shadows (2011) was a finalist for the Governor General's Award and on the Scotia Bank Giller Prize long list.

The Spring 2012 series concludes May 5 with a reading by Calgary writer and lecturer Suzette Mayr, author of Monoceros (2011), an acclaimed novel about teen bullies and bullying.
